

16 SEP 1971

Allende Ousting UPI From Chile

Santiago, Chile (Reuter)—President Salvador Allende last night ordered the American news agency United Press International to close its offices in Chile.

The Marxist president said he had decided to close the agency because of various news stories it issued from abroad in recent weeks.

He made no criticism of the agency's operations inside Chile, where it employs about 15 journalists.